

Urban Research Institute

Communication Skills Manual and Training Delivery

The content of the material provides sessions that lead the municipality staff to prepare their own Communication Strategy Development on one side and establish and maintain communication mechanisms between the employees of different municipal administrative units.