ETHICS IN PUBLIC SERVICE FOR THE NEW MILLENNIUM-RICHARD A. CHAPMAN

It includes 14 chapters written from international experts - all of them have had broad careers in public sectors.

There is an emerge need to increase the public awareness and to promote the ethical decision making at the public sector itself, to increase the involvement of the political, administrative and juridical sectors to fight the corruption through capacity building and support.

The publishing in the Albanian Language was financed by the Department of Public Affair of the United States of America Embassy in Tirana.
